

Sermon Notes

You Are God Alone

Acts 17

God is righteously jealous. He wants us to worship Him, and to worship Him alone.

1. Notice what Paul saw (Acts 17:16). What got his attention was the Idolatry! The city was swamped with idols. Now what is an idol? It is a God-substitute. It is any person or thing that occupies _____ which God should occupy. Paul saw a city submerged in idols.

2. Notice what Paul felt (Acts 17:16). Jealousy is the resentment of rivals. Whether it is sinful or righteous jealousy depends on whether the rival has any business being there. God has a right to our exclusive allegiance and worship, and He is jealous when we give that allegiance or worship to anyone or anything else.

3. Notice what Paul did (Acts 17:17-21). When it comes to Biblical truth, if it is True, it's not new, and if it's New, it isn't true.

4. Notice what Paul said (Acts 17:22-31).

A. God is Creator (Acts 17:24).

B. God is Lord (Acts 17:24).

C. God is Transcendent (Acts 17:24). The Only True God can not be limited or localized to some man made shrine or temple built by man! The word "transcendent" means "outside the universe." Since God created the universe, he can't be contained by it.

D. God is All-Sufficient (Acts:17:25). This Only True God doesn't need anything, including us. He has no needs. Instead He is the Supreme Giver.

E. God is Sovereign (Acts 17:26).

F. God is Immanent (Acts 17:27-28). Immanence speaks of God being near and close to us. In other words, He is knowable. He's not so far and distant that you can never know Him.

G. God is Living (Acts 17:29).

Is there someone or something in your life that occupies the place that God should occupy?
